WORLD WAR ENDS AS GERMANY SIGNS ARMISTICE!

[Extraordinary Service Bulletins by the Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11th, (Monday)---The world war will end this morning at 6 o'clock, Washington time, 11 o'clock Paris time. The armistice was signed by the German representatives at midnight. This announcement was made by the State Department at 2:50 o'clock this morning.

The announcement was made verbally by an official of the State Department in this form: "The armistice has been signed. It was signed at 5 o'clock a. m. Paris time and hostilities will cease at 11 o'clock this morning, Paris time."

The terms of the armistice, it was announced, will not be made public until later. Military men here, however, regard it as certain that they include:

Immediate retirement of the German military forces from France, Belgium and Alsace-Lorraine.

Disarming and demobilization of the German armies.

Occupation by the Allied and American forces of such strategic points in Germany as will make impossible a renewal of hostilities.

Delivery of part of the German high seas fleet and a certain number of submarines to the Allied naval forces.

Disarmament of all other German warships under supervision of the Allied and

GERMANY UNCONDITIONALLY SURRENDERS

Washington, Nov. 11 (Exclusive Dispatch) The State Department confirms the signing of the armistice by Germany and releases the terms of the armistice. The terms are the same as for Austria, only more severe.

American navies, which will guard them. Occupation of the principal naval bases by sea forces of the victorious nations.

Release of all Allied and American soldiers, sailors and civilians held prisoners in Germany without reciprocal action by the associated governments.

There was no information as to the circumstances under which the armistice was signed, but since the German courier did not reach German military headquarters until ten o'clock yesterday morning, French time, it was generally assumed here that the German envoys within the French lines had been instructed by wireless to sign the terms.

Forty-seven hours had been required for the courier to reach German headquarters and unquestionably several hours were necessary for the examination of the terms and a decision. It was regarded as possible, however, that the decision may have been made at Berlin and instructions transmitted from there by the new German government.

Germany had been given until 11 o'clock this morning, French time, 6 o'clock Washington time, to accept. So hostilities will end at the hour set by Marshal Foch for a decision by Germany for peace or for continuation of the war.

The momentous news that the armistice had been signed was telephoned to the White House for transmission to the President a few minutes before it was given to the newspaper correspondents. Later, it was said that there would be no statement from the White House at this time.

DETHRONED KAISER IN HOLLAND.

Wilhelm with Crown Prince Flees to Safety as Socialists Take Over Government of German Empire and Army Deserts Autocracy.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
LONDON, Nov. 11, 4 a.m.—The flight of Emperor William to Holland is confirmed from several sources, but there is a divergence in reports relative to the identity and number of his companies. A Copenhagen dispatch to Reuters says it is semi-officially reported in Berlin that the Emperor, accompanied by ten men, has arrived at Arnheim and occupied Count von Bentinck's chateau.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press.) A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen quotes the Politiken as saying that when the former German Emperor arrived at Maastricht he was accompanied by the former Empress.

LONDON, Nov. 10, midnight.—Both the former German Emperor and his eldest son, Frederick William, crossed the Dutch frontier Sunday morning, according to advices from The Hague.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(By A. P. Leased Wire.) William Hohenzollern has arrived in Maastricht, Holland, and is proceeding to Middelacht Castle in the town of Desteeg, near Utrecht.

The message said:
"Press reports state that the Kaiser arrived this morning in Maastricht, Holland, and is proceeding to Middelacht Castle in the town of Desteeg, near Utrecht."

KAISER SHIVERS AS HE SIGNS.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
LONDON, Nov. 10, 2:04 p.m.—Emperor William signed a letter of abdication Saturday morning at the German grand headquarters in the presence of Crown Prince Frederick William and Field Marshal Hindenburg, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The German Crown Prince signed his renunciation to the throne shortly afterwards.
It is believed that King Ludwig of Bavaria and King Frederick August of Saxony also have abdicated.

The ex-Kaiser and the former Crown Prince were expected to take leave of their troops on Saturday, but nothing has been settled regarding their future movements.
Before placing his signature to the document an urgent message from Philipp Scheidemann, who was when he received the news of the latest events in the empire, was handed to the Emperor. He signed the paper, saying:
"It may be for the good of Germany."
The Emperor was deeply moved. He consented to sign the document only when he received the news of the latest events in the empire. Serious food difficulties are expected in Germany owing to the stoppage of trains. The council of the regency will take the most drastic steps to re-establish order.

TEUTON SOLDIERS JOIN REVOLT; MONARCHY OUT

Formation of Peoples' Government in Berlin; Social Democrat is Announced as Leader.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
BASEL (Switzerland) Nov. 10.—An official dispatch received by the Havas Agency from Berlin today says:

"Official. The revolution has resulted in a striking victory almost without the effusion of blood.

"A general strike was declared this morning. It brought a cessation of work in all workshops at about 10 o'clock.

"A regiment of Nuremberg chasseurs passed over to the people. Other troops rapidly followed their action.

"The Alexander Regiment, after hearing a declaration by Deputy Wells, went over to the revolution."

SEVERE FIGHTING IN BERLIN.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Severe fighting took place in Berlin between 6 and 8 o'clock last night and violent cannonading was heard from the heart of the city. The revolution is in full swing in Berlin and the Red forces occupy a great part of the German capital, according to Copenhagen dispatches to the Exchange Telegraph from Berlin at 3 o'clock this morning.

Many persons were killed or wounded before the officers surrendered. Red forces are in control and have restored order. Revolutionary soldiers attacked a building which was supposed to hold a number of officers. Shots were fired from windows and the Reds then began to shell the building.

The palace of the Crown Prince has been seized by revolutionists. People are shouting "Long live the republic!" and singing the "Marseillaise."

Leipzig, the largest city in Saxony; Stuttgart, the capital of Wurtemberg, and Cologne and Frankfurt have joined the revolution, according to reports from the Danish frontier telegraphed here by the Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The soldiers' councils at Stuttgart, Cologne and Frankfurt have decided to proclaim a republic.

Schleswig-Holstein, the Prussian province which formerly belonged to Denmark, is to be proclaimed an independent republic, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

A train filled with soldiers has been sent out from Bremen for the purpose of persuading other towns to join the revolution, says a dispatch from the Danish frontier forwarded here by the correspondent at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

BERLIN BUILDINGS ABLAZE.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
LONDON, Nov. 10, 10 a.m.—When the cannonade began, the people thought the Reichstag was being bombarded and thousands rushed to the square in front of the Crown Prince's palace. It was later determined that other buildings were under fire.

Delegates of the revolutionary German navy arrived in Berlin on Friday, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. They conferred for several hours with the Minister of Marine and with members of the Reichstag majority parties.

It is stated that Hugo Haase, a Socialist leader in the Reichstag, has the situation of Hamburg in hand.

BERLIN JOINS THE REVOLUTION.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—(German Wireless to London.) The text of the statement issued by the people's government reads:
"In the course of the forenoon of Saturday the formation of a new German people's government was initiated. The greater part of the Berlin garrison and other troops stationed there temporarily went over to the new government."

The leaders of the deputations of the Social-Democratic party declared that they would not shoot against the people. They said they hoped to democracy and had surrendered unconditionally to the maintenance of order. Thereupon in the offices and public buildings the guards which had been stationed there were withdrawn.

The business of the Imperial Chancellor is being carried on by the Social-Democratic deputy, Herr Ebert.
"It is presumed that, apart from the representatives of the recent majority group, three Independent Social-Democrats will enter the future government."

EBERT NOW CHANCELLOR.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10, 8:30 a.m.—Friedrich Ebert, the Socialist leader, has been appointed Imperial Chancellor. He has issued a proclamation saying that he plans to form a people's government which will endeavor to bring about speedy peace.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press.) The Wolff Bureau, the semi-official news agency of Germany, announces in a dispatch from Berlin that it has been taken over by the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council.

"TIMES" SIREN GIVES NEWS

Thousands Jam Streets in Front of Building and Celebrate End of War.

Hardly had The Times' siren gave its first shriek at midnight when people began running towards The Times corner. In a few minutes automobiles began to take up the strident notes and proclaim to sleeping Los Angeles that the world war was at an end, that German autocracy had bowed to democracy and had surrendered unconditionally to the demands of the Allies and the United States.

Soon the street was filled with a surging crowd. From minute to minute scores joined afoot, in automobiles on the joyous racket. An interesting streets were jammed with shouting, happy, half-delirious people.

And about you never heard such shouting as The Times swung out the bulletin officially declaring the war at an end.

Old and young danced in joy. The women—of whom there were a large gathering—embraced and kissed as they realized the end had come and peace had been proclaimed.

THE RATTLE IN GLOOM.
Searchlights were turned on the eagle and flag surrounding The Times tower and the crowds again emphasized its delight by added volume. Men tore their collars and ties off and hats were thrown into the air and all the time the great throat of The Times' siren kept pouring out the glad news.

The shrieks of the siren were taken up by whistles from various sections of the city. From the far-off ocean front great steam whistles added to the joyous racket. Automobiles by hundreds shrieked and screamed, and yelled, if you please. Flags were swung in the air and still the crowd grew and grew.

As the minutes tolled by a hand appeared and added to the excitement. People in Mardi Gras costume formed a parade and marched and counter-marched up and down Broadway. In the parade were a number of movie queens in stage costume and the crowd yowled in delight.

Such a night it was—and everyone down deep in their hearts uttered a silent prayer of thanksgiving that bloodshed was at an end and our brave boys "over there" had carried the mood of the city.

San Gabriel Cemetery Scientists Make no Attempt to Test County Regulation.

No attempt was made yesterday by the members of the Santa Anita Church of Christ, Scientist, of San Gabriel to hold services, though the matter of testing the county health regulations was talked over among the members of the church last week. End of the War will Usher in Period of Fresh Prosperity in Los Angeles, Business Men Say; Readjustment Here Simpler Than in Other Cities

Peace is a fact rather than a prospective possibility, and this city is face to face with her greatest opportunity. The city is not alone. The world is available. YANKEES WIN SIBERIAN MEET.

Redlands Man Tells of War on Far Eastern Battle Front.

Germans Blow up Ship Rather than Submit to Capture.

American athletes carried off most of the honors in a recent Anglo-American field meet in Siberia, according to a letter received by the Redlands boy, now serving as second mate on the United States Ship Brooklyn, in Far Eastern waters. Later, in an all-Siberian meet the Americans did not fare so well, a Bohemian officer whom Dow describes as "the best all-around athlete I ever saw," carrying off a number of firsts. The Yankees, however, captured enough honors in this meet to make them the champion point winners.

"The (the British) had a team that they defeated before," says Dow in his letter to his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dow, "and they challenged us. We accepted and had just two weeks in which to train. Our chaplain was an officer of the All-Siberian meet in 1915, held at Los Angeles, in which I ran, and remembered me. I was the only American to make the team. We hardly expected to make much of a showing. We had a long, lanky quartermaster to run the mile and the half-mile, and a little, skinny hospital apprentice, Lester, to take second in the half and 100-yard dash. I showed them how to throw the discus and put the shot, and jump and pole vault—something most of them had never seen before.

"Many thousand Russians, Czechs, English, Americans, Japs, and in fact, nearly every nationality, came out to the hippodrome. The 100-yard race first and we took first, second and third. Then the mile came, and we took first and third. I won both hurdle races, the high jump and the 220. We lost third place in two other races and won all the other races. I was the hero of the day and was carried back to the ship with many cheers. Then came the boat races, which we won easily.

"ROMANIAN IS STAR. These Czechs thought a lot of the meet and we decided to have an international meet, entering seven nationalities. It was widely advertised and talked of through all the country. Finally the big day came.

"There were 25,000 Czechs present. All of the English and French, many Russians, and almost every nationality appeared. There was a Bohemian officer, the best athlete I have ever seen, who took first in the 100, 220, 440, 880, 1760, 3520, 7040, 14080, 28160, 56320, 112640, 225280, 450560, 901120, 1802240, 3604480, PROVES UP NEW OIL DISTRICT.

Standard Company's Success in Orange County Pioneer-ing Attraction.
Reports filed with the State Mining Bureau for the week ending November 3 show six new wells ready to drill, making a total of 514 since the first of the year. Some of the new wells reported show that further work is to be done in the area three miles east of the town of Richfield, in Orange county, where the Standard Oil Company recently brought in a producing well. The well is situated on the Kraemer property in section 36, T. 3 S., R. 9 W., S. 3 E. and M. This development indicates the possibility of a considerable eastward extension of the oil fields in Orange county.

CASH IS KING, EXPERTS SAY

Sound Optimistic Note on After-the-War Conditions in World of Trade.

(From Monthly Bulletin of the National City Bank of New York.)

It seems of peace are agreed upon at an early day the government's construction and manufacturing programs will be considerably curtailed, but expenditures upon the army and navy will necessarily remain very large. It must be remembered that the proceeds of the Fourth Loan have been to a great extent anticipated by the treasury and already expended, the seven offerings of treasury certificates having brought in $4,655,195,000. It is evident therefore that a great deal of money will yet have to be raised for the war, both on our own account and for our allies.

It is not improbable that the European governments which have been borrowing here will want to continue doing so for some time after they have done purchasing war materials. They must all make heavy importations of food at least for a year to come, and they will also want quantities of raw materials for manufacturing and probably merchandise, and equipment. These purchases cannot be made unless credits are created here, and of course it is to the interest of the country that such purchases should be made in order that the business situation shall be sustained in the critical period when the war business is disappearing. If our government should continue making prospects has brought the problem of post-war readjustment into immediate view. The first effect to be seen is in a spirit of hesitation. Buyers are disposed to hold off on purchases and sellers are more inclined to let goods go. The grain markets show weakness. What is sustained by the government minimum price, but corn has dropped approximately 30 cents per bushel since the first of September.

This decline is due in part to the maturity of the new crop, which although of only moderate size, is of fine quality, and to the fact that there has been a heavy movement of old corn out of farmers' hands. It is clear though that peace is considered a bear argument in the grain. In the long run peace undoubtedly will bring lower prices for all foodstuffs, but it is difficult to see how it can do so in the near future. Early in the war it was considered that the opening of the Dardanelles would release stores of Russian grain, but Russia has no stores to spare now. Moreover, Russian conditions are so unsettled that it is doubtful if that country will have any grain to export next year. As soon as peace is established, Central Europe will move foodstuffs in large quantities. All the countries that are on rationing will want liberal supplies, and neither Europe nor America can produce any more food before next summer. Australia has two crops of wheat in store, but the transportation problem will be troublesome for more than a year. Argentine supplies have been pretty well moved out; the new crop, upon which cutting will begin in about a month, promises about the same yield as last year's. Food Commissioner Hoover, who is thoroughly informed, says that it is even more necessary to conserve food supplies during the ensuing year than it was last year.

In cotton and woolen goods the situation is somewhat the same as in foodstuffs, although the demand for clothing is not so important as for food. Central Europe is very short of clothing, as accounts of the spinning of paper and nettle fiber show. The United States has control of present stocks of wool in this country and has sent a commission to Argentina to buy the crop now coming out of that market, but it does not call the classes of recruits it will hardly want all the uniforms it has planned to make. The trade is confident that the civilian demand will take all the wool the government releases, and only asks to have it at a price. Will the civilian demand, strengthened by the markets of Central Europe, sustain prices at or near the present level? The best authorities think no great decline is probable in the coming year. The British government is in contract for all the wool produced in her dominions for a period including one crop after the end of the war, and as her territories produce nearly one-half of the world's wool, she is in position to sustain the price and has an interest in doing so.

It has been constantly assumed that the end of the war would bring higher prices than it has reached, but the contrary view has obtained considerable support. The price is now about 5 cents per pound lower than several months ago. There can be no doubt that cotton goods are very much wanted over the world, but whether or not present prices discount this demand is a question for experts. It probably depends in part upon general industrial conditions.

Although the government is going ahead with contracts for army supplies, it has held up plans for construction work in some instances and has canceled some contracts for distant deliveries. The shipbuilding program has been modified so that no more ships will be built, and the expansion of yard capacity is probably over. Some $60,000,000 of contracts for steel transportation have been canceled.

INDUSTRIAL SITUATION. Of course, upon the question of employment, and that in turn depends upon the urgency of the consumptive demand for products. It is beyond question that there is plenty of work at home and abroad which ought to be done; the whole world is in need of consumable goods and behind construction work. The question is, will private consumers buy freely upon the present level of prices in view of the fact that prices are sure to make important recessions after all the men now in the armies and war industries are returned to peace work?

The war work goes ahead, regardless of cost, but private consumption is reduced by high prices and private investors will hesitate to place capital for a long time at high initial cost, when there is a probability that the same property can be obtained later at a cost materially less. Herein lies the uncertainty of this situation.

For example, building operations have been curtailed to a great extent, and no doubt a large amount of such work would be done if prices were normal. But will an investor build at the present level of costs when, by waiting a year or two, he may be able to do so at 40 per cent. lower cost? Real estate men have confidence in active building operations, but they are not sure that the realization of their hopes depends mainly upon the general state of employment and business, and that is the case in many lines.

What are the conditions which are definitely favorable to trade and industry? In the first place, agriculture is prosperous almost everywhere. The demand for food is very large, and the demand for raw materials should be large, which includes the metals, copper, lead, zinc and silver, and the districts in which these are produced should be busy. The demand for cotton and cotton goods should be such as to make the South prosperous, and to give employment to the mills in all sections of the United States.

The agricultural implement business will also have a large export trade and will be an important amount of steel. The automobile industry showed no signs of being affected by the rise of materials and only asks to have the latter supplied. Machinery of many kinds will be wanted for replacement abroad. Lumber and building hardware and steel and railway equipment presumably will be wanted abroad for rebuilding, but the extent of this demand cannot be calculated. Speaking generally, foreign trade should be better than before the war if means are found by which would-be customers can make payment. It may as well be recognized at the outset that this question of how payment can be made is a vital one.

IS WELL IN HAND. The number of influenza cases reported to the health department yesterday was ninety-eight, and the deaths numbered seven. As no mail was received by the department, yesterday's figures give no adequate indication of influenza conditions, say doctors.

The health authorities believe, however, that while the disease is not checked, the situation is well in hand, and that continued enforcement of the regulations will show, perhaps by the end of the week, a steady decline in the number of cases.

Dr. L. M. Powers, health commissioner, said last night: "The situation seems satisfactory and we can only trust that it will continue so. Last week we had 1500 fewer new influenza cases and seventy fewer deaths than the previous week. If the public will strictly observe the regulations, we should be able to continue to show a decrease."

WITHDRAWAL BOOMERANG

Federal Edict Causes Oil Men to Cancel Plans for Wyoming Development.

Despite the war demand for oil and its many products and the appeals of the Fuel Administration that new fields be sought and brought in wherever possible, word has been received here of the withdrawal from entry of thousands of acres in Niobrara county, Wyoming, near the Nebraska border, where a new field has just been discovered and is at the point of being developed.

The withdrawal order appears to have been in hurry-up order, almost immediately after the news reached Washington that a new oil field had been found in response to the direct appeals of the government itself.

DEATH BLOW TO WILD-CATS. When the first news reached Los Angeles from sources beyond all possible question oil men simply gasped with astonishment. Despite the hundreds of thousands of acres withdrawn during recent years and still tied up, and the prosecution of men who went upon withdrawn lands, it was thought by many that in view of war conditions, the government would at least refrain from any more withdrawals.

Here in California there are large areas of prospective oil lands where the government holds the titles and where as yet the lands have not been withdrawn from entry. These areas are in Ventura, Imperial, San Diego, Riverside, San Bernardino, and other counties.

Now is a MAJOR. Capt. Woolworth Sutphen of the city, who won a commission as captain at the Presidio and operated with the Ninety-first Division, has been made a major, according to a cable received yesterday by his wife.

IN LOS ANGELES there are many men of money who have expressed a willingness to start prospecting in any of these regions whenever they can be assured that the government will leave them unmolested, give them title to the land, and will not confiscate the fruits of their labor.

REBELLED SAFE. In the Lusk field, now withdrawn from entry, the General Petroleum Corporation has a number of operations on government land in the immediate vicinity of the oil well. The company's office is located at the land is fully protected. Whether it is or not is not yet known. The government has tied up vast areas in litigation many years, where the developers thought themselves safe because of prior work done at big expense.

The Rispin interests of San Francisco also have large areas of land in the vicinity of the oil well. These lands have been patented and therefore safe.
